Women in Apprenticeship Panel

11 a.m. - 12 p.m.

bit.ly/Apprenticeships-Women

What do the first woman apprentice to graduate from the Rural Water Association, the executive director of the company that started the first Cyber Security Apprenticeship program in Wyoming, the program manager of outreach and workforce development at LCCC, the office manager and executive assistant of the Wyoming Electrical Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee, and the Wyoming Director of the Office of Apprenticeship have in common? These five women are the pillars of Apprenticeship in Wyoming: listen as they discuss the state of Registered Apprenticeships in Wyoming, the changing face of apprenticeship and the unique challenges women may face in Apprenticeship roles - and how to overcome them.

Featuring panelists Mike Broad, Christie Goertel, Laura Baker, Stevie Osborn, and Megan Lane
